

How YOU can help!!

By becoming a sponsor at any level, you provide our animals with food, bedding, veterinary care, and meet many needs that keep them happy, healthy, and able to be enjoyed by our visitors.

Your Reward

As a sponsor you will not only receive the satisfaction of helping our animals, but also an invitation to the Friends' Animal Birthday Party in the Spring.

Your support will also further Quiet Valley Living Historical Farm's Historical Breeds program. We believe in the preservation of the many endangered breeds of today. These traditional breeds are an essential part of the American agricultural inheritance.

Thank moooo!

QUIET VALLEY Living Historical Farm

About Our Animals

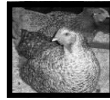

Our various farm animals are a central and special part of Quiet Valley Living Historical Farm. Our Historic Breeds Program actively pursues historical accuracy and the preservation of old heritage breeds.

What Animals call Quiet Valley home?

You'll see various fowl including: Muscovy ducks, Delaware chickens, Toulouse geese, Bourbon Red Turkeys, and even Guineas. Visitors enjoy our fluffy rabbits, friendly Toggenburg goats, wooly Dorset sheep, and muddy Yorkshire pigs. Our Milking Shorthorn cow "Bossy" and "Janie" the mule are favorites of many. Finally, we can take a wagon ride thanks to our Belgian Draft Horses "Lori" and "Sherry."

Say hello to "Janie" our mule
